

filipino american FANHS
 national historical society

15th Biennial National Conference

July 31 – August 2, 2014

Kona Kai Resort / Hotel - San Diego, CA

Join hundreds of nationally known historians, artists, writers, community leaders, teachers, students, & elders for memorable intergenerational activities.

Conference highlights include:

- Presentations & Panels
- Interactive Workshops
- Dinner & Dance
- Authors' Reception
- Special track for Educators
- Historic Tour –July 30th

...and much more!

KAPWA: MOVING FORWARD IN UNITY

“Kapwa” refers to an indigenous and decolonized term which means shared identity. As FANHS comes to San Diego we will examine our history, our struggles, and our shared and different identities. With our FANHS 2014 National Conference, we will move our communities forward in unity.

For more information: www.fanhs-sandiego.org or www.fanhs-national.org/fanhs2014

FANHS SAN DIEGO CHAPTER – 2014 National Conference Hosts
FANHS18@yahoo.com